

SHADE CONSULTING AND COUNSELLING PRESENTS

Trans and IDD: Supports and Safety

Description

Transgender, folks exist everywhere in our society. That includes neurodivergent and disabled individuals. It is important to ensure that within our agencies that we support and provide safety for all no matter their identity or orientation. This workshop is specifically focused on support for intellectually or developmentally disabled (IDD) individuals.

Learning Goals

Following this workshop, you will be able to

- commit to using the language needed to support transgender individuals.
- describe some of the unique needs of intellectually or developmentally disabled individuals.
- identify some of the challenges of transgender IDD individuals.
- initiate support and safety practices for transgender IDD clients throughout their journey.

Format

This workshop is available for a three-hour presentation.

It can be booked for an online or in-person workshop.

Dr. Margaret Newbury Jones has worked in the disability community for her whole career. She is known for her outstanding, interactive workshops. She works as a trauma counsellor, sexuality educator, and trainer with SHADE Consulting and Counselling.

Interested in this workshop for your organization?
Contact us to discuss your needs and for a quotation.

info@shadeconsulting.ca

778-215-0132

www.shadeconsulting.ca

©SHADE Consulting and Counselling 2023