

Sexual Health and Folks with IDD – The Difficult Bits

Two day training focusing on building capacity in addressing sexual health as a component of a good quality of life.

- ✓ What's your role? What are the roles of others?
- ✓ Complex presentations which include sexualized behaviours
- ✓ Self-determination of clients with regard to gender identification and orientation
- ✓ Consent and legalities regarding ability to consent
- ✓ Involvement with forensic system
- ✓ Abuse, victimization & experiences of trauma
- ✓ Need for a sexual health policy. What does a policy include?
- ✓ How to develop policy for your agency

Presenter:

Dr. Margaret Newbury Jones

SHADE Consulting and Counselling

Dr. Newbury Jones has been working in the field of intellectual disability for 25+ years. She is known for her expertise in working with folks with IDD as a teacher, sexual health educator and trauma counsellor. She continues to provide direct service with clients in addition to workshops and consultation throughout BC and beyond. www.shadeconsulting.ca

Dates: February – March, 2019

Locations: Prince, George, Terrace, Williams Lake, Kamloops, & Dawson Creek

To register: Contact your local CLBC office for details

